Professional Expertise

George has been in the commercial real estate industry for over 25 years. George started his commercial real estate career as a college intern with Ostendorf-Morris in 1995. Upon graduation from college in 1996, George worked for the Sherwin-Williams Company as an Internal Field Auditor before coming back to Ostendorf-Morris in 1997 as the Industrial Database Manager and then Sales Associate. George joined Cushman & Wakefield | CRESCO Real Estate as a Senior Sales Associate in 2003 and was promoted to Vice President in 2005, Senior Vice President in 2010 and Principal in 2021.

He has been a consistent top producer as evident by receipt of his CCIM designation in 2005 and his SIOR designation in 2009. A Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) is a recognized expert in the disciplines of commercial and investment real estate. The SIOR designation is a personal achievement for those individuals who are highly qualified commercial real estate practitioners with a strong transactional history in brokerage, fee-based services, or executive management.

During his tenure, George has assisted both locally owned and national clients in all aspects of real estate, including property acquisitions, dispositions, valuations, leasing, lease termination, subleasing, land sales, build-to-suit transactions and various consulting services. George has successfully handled over 1,000 transactions in 13 states.
